It Will be Given to the Home-Seekers.

El Heno, O. T., May I.-People who are nting on 480,000 extra acres being thrown open for settlement along with the Kiowa and Commanche country are reckoning without their host. It is well known that congress set aside as a resreation within the reservation, and not to be allotted ar opened for settlement 60,000 acres. Recently the chiefe of the tribes met and proposed that if the setand they would let it become subject

Thereupon the cry went up that 480,000 acres extra would be opened for settle-ment on August 8. This will not happen. Even if the department of the interior amounted to willing this big reserve. I
